

Chealsye Bowley

chealsye@gmail.com | chealsye.com

Education

MSc Science, Technology and Society

University College London

Dissertation: "I'm Cited, Therefore I Am!": How Publishing Constructs the Scientific Identity <http://doi.org/bd69>

November 2015

M.S. Library and Information Studies

Florida State University

August 2014

B.A. English, Philosophy

Florida Gulf Coast University

April 2012

Professional Experience

Community Manager, Ubiquity Press 2017 - Present

- Managing and providing resources to the the institutions, presses, and authors that publish with Ubiquity Press, an open access publisher of peer-reviewed academic journals, books and data

Scholarly Communication Librarian, Florida Gulf Coast University 2016 - 2017

- Developed scholarly communication services for the university community
- Provided education on publishing, copyright, Open Access, and data management

Scholarly Communication Librarian, Texas Woman's University 2016

- Provided education and consultations on Open Access archiving and copyright
- Established a scholarly communication workshop series for graduate students

Information Assistant, BPP University 2014 - 2015

- Assisted staff and students with access and use of the library's collections
- Provided reference services in law research and IT support to staff and students

Library Supervisor, Florida State University Florence Study Center 2013 – 2014

- Managed all operations, including collection development, undergraduate instruction, and programming, for the academic library in Florence, Italy
- Conducted a substantial weed of the library's collection
- Taught workshops on research skills, copyright law, and digital projects
- Assisted students, faculty and staff with print and electronic resources
- Supervised five student library assistants each semester

Graduate Assistant, Florida State University Libraries 2012 – 2013

- Worked with the Scholarly Communication Librarian on open access initiatives
- Assisted with development and management of DigiNole Commons
- Managed the FSU Law Review's transition to open access publishing
- Led workshops for undergraduate Honors students on publishing and copyright

Community Involvement

Communications and Advocacy Director, Open Access Button 2013 - Present

- Coordinating all communications for the Open Access Button, a web and mobile app that connects users to open research, tracks the impact of paywalls, and advocates for open research

Florida Student Activist Coordinator, Amnesty International 2012 - 2013

- Coordinated approximately twenty AIUSA student groups in Florida
- Supported student group initiatives through advising and event consultations

Field Organizer Intern, Amnesty International 2011

- Assisted with coordinating local and student groups in the Mid-Atlantic region